Mr. Pyke got some press for his BDCP alternative suggestion about 2 weeks ago. Here is his response to the "NRDC" alternative. For purposes of clarity, I suggest we refer to them as the Pyke alternative (and I don't have that one) and the NGO/Water Agency alternative.

Jerry, David,

The attached letter was mailed this morning. As always I would be happy to discuss. I hope that it was OK to quote Jerry on the cost of consultants – I know that you made a change for the better in that regard but I speak from experience when I say that most of not all consultants are whores!

Regards,

Bob
